100% scalable, and provided in.icns. ► Extras You have 10 extra folders (the extras folders are named after the data contained inside them): 1) 4 different extras: Toast.sqlite, Params.sqlite, Resources.sqlite, SonettoSqlite.sqlite. Each one is a SQLite database file where you can make changes to tables and views of your device. 2) 4 different extras: 3d.jpg, 2048x2048.jpg, Toast_height.png, Toast_width.png. These files are 512*512 px. They are not included in the zip file. They are just for preview. These files were made for debug purpose only. They are usually used to preview.png files or.ico files, but are also suitable for previewing.png files. 3) 10.ico files (50 icons each). These are provided in 32px.ico files. The icon is 256*256 px These icons are generic system icons. You have to install the application to access them. If you like it, please don't forget to give me a nice review in your favourite application. You can use them for preview, you can also have the icons downloaded and placed inside your emulator of choice. Don't forget to give me a nice review if you do. For more informations header2").click(function() { $(this).addClass("active"); });

The problem is that this works in the page itself, but on IE, clicking the div doesn't do anything. If I change it to:
$("div#crd-header2").click(function() {
$(this).addClass("active"); $("div#crd-header2").addClass("active"); }); It works fine on IE. How can I fix this? The html is as follows: Wholesale Products Search
