The English version of the game is ready now. The Chinese version has just been released. Pharaoh out. Overview ◉ Battle of the ancient Pharaoh comes to the surface from the underground. Someone is trying to seize the power and rule Egypt. Help him steal the Scepter of Seth! Pharoah need to destroy the ancient machine and save Egypt. The English version of the game is ready now. The Chinese version has just been released. Pharaoh out. ◉ Your mission is to destroy the machine and bring back the life into Egypt. ◉ You can buy more upgrades to make you tank more powerful and increase your chance to destroy machine and save the Egypt. ◉ Fire Machine: The metal machine you see on the map which can destroy you if you are close. You can also see the amount of metal in the cup which is displayed on the left side of the screen. ◉ Take out your weapons and destroy the machine. ◉ Tanks have no weapons. Instead, they destroy the machine by ramming into it. ◉ When the machine reaches 0, a scene will appear. If you destroy the machine now, you win the round. If not, the machine will be finished, the next round will be played. ◉ Your enemy can build the machine. As soon as you destroy the machine, the other player will finish the construction. It is worth noting that the building takes time and so if you do not destroy the machine at the right time, you will lose! ◉ Your economy is what determines whether you will win. If you use too much money for the building and the machine, the other player will win. Rules ■ Your economy is important. The machine will use 1 unit of metal per 3 seconds. ■ The amount of metal the machine uses can be seen on the left side of the screen. ■ Whenever you destroy the machine, a short scene will appear. Then, the machine will be finished. You can only destroy the machine at this time. The other player also will destroy it, if you do not win the round. ■ As soon as you complete the building, the other player will build it

AUTHOR'S NOTE: This guide covers all areas of the game. However, this guide does not go in-depth with any specific combat or storytelling element. Instead, you can read more about these aspects of the game in their respective section of the Guidebook.The following is a small selection of each regions' locations:Eastern Region:The eastern region is full of perilous lands filled with equally hazardous monsters. To avoid them you'll need to hide in the swamps, valleys and other settlements found throughout the region. Enemies such as griffons, sharx, morsnar, lopys and shubs make it difficult to avoid them altogether, but you can use the terrain to your advantage, using rocky cliffs and chasms to cover your retreat. Take time to familiarise yourself with the region's layout and you should be able to explore it freely without being overwhelmed by too many enemies. Towns:Ampora, Apacotta, Zarac, Dvarru, Karomia, Rathnila, and Baitnila Players must leave Ampora by the northeast exit, and reach Baitnila via a red minimap marker. The other towns are reachable by following other small red markers. Why is there a treehouse in the middle of Ampora? The treehouse is a base of operations for the Kalistas, which means "The Soldiers". The Kalistas was once a peaceful faction, but were corrupted by the Kunchee, who corrupted the trees by making them into a source of food. As a result, the Kalistas have had no choice but to start becoming more aggressive. The treehouse, however, can be reached by following the western path, behind the remains of the treehouse itself. How can I escape the Kalistas? The Kalistas are entirely separate from the rest of the game. A way out can be found by heading west of Ampora, near a large tree. Alongside this tree is a small grave for the person who once stood there. Explore this grave, then find the stone door nearby. When opened, you will find yourself in a huge cavern. Head north, and you will find the door to the Kalistas's base. Southwest Region:The southwestern region of The Great Ursee is a lush, beautiful area of mangrove swamps, misty forests and crystal rivers. Accessible via the southern exit from Ampora, this region features the twilight castle,

Precision Cap Kit: Save time, money, effort, and working capital with these rugged, tough cap sleeves that save time, money and effort by automatically screwing caps onto your bottles. CapsSLS: Add labels to your bottles instantly. Add labels to your bottles instantly. So you will save time and effort! What are 'caps?' Caps, usually a rubber or vinyl, seal one end of a bottle (depending on the size of bottle you are capping) so that the bottle can be safely stored without contamination by dust, insects or air. Bottle Caps are inexpensive and available in a wide variety of styles. (Caps or Rubber Seals). PLASTIC BOTTLE INSERTS: Plastic Bottle Extrusions are the same material as the bottle you are trying to protect. (not glass) Use the same heavy-duty bungee-like strap you use when applying bottle insert covers with these hard-wearing caps. The straps are set-in style to provide a tight fit. Each tube also has its own lanyard hole to accommodate a 1/4"-20 SS tube. Each cap is made to fit the cap that is missing and will screw on to that missing cap (assuming it is the same style, ie: square or round). Just snap off the existing cap and screw on the new cap to complete your job. Work time savings is huge! These tabs are made from polished stainless steel and rust-proof. The band was formed in 2000 by Stuart Calvert (vocals/guitar) and Andrew Haigh (guitar). Noah's Ark formed as a way to allow Calvert to provide fresh material for his other project, Ace Enders Club. The band's sound is a mix of alternative rock, electronica and funk/rock with shades of hip hop and dance. The band's debut album, Young Blood, was released in 2001 on the band's own label, London Records. To support the album, Noah's Ark toured with such bands as The Verve, The Boo Radleys, The Horrors, Placebo and The Dears. The band were nominated for Best British Newcomer in the 2002 Kerrang! Awards. In 2003, they released their second album, Se-M-A-R-K on the band's own imprint, Remark Records. It was described as a "progressive and better-tempered" album. Noah's Ark continued touring through 2003 and 2004 with bands such as Pulp and Keane. In 2005, Noah's Ark signed a deal with Overground Records and released their third album, Not The Same Without You, in 2006. In late 2008, Calvert announced that he was leaving the band to pursue his project, Ace Enders Club.
