Mutational screening analysis of the DNA samples from selected mitochondrial regions in 100 patients with phenotypes suspicious for mitochondrial diseases. Three separate disorders in three unrelated patients had the novel alteration that consisted of the mixed base substitution in several parts of the mitochondrial genome. We describe a new mitochondrial disease with the appearance of high levels of the specific DNA fragments with the mixed base substitution. The mixed base substitution may be a sign of the presence of unknown multisystemic or multiorgan disorders in mitochondrial DNA.Q; CSS - Display:none on button click in javascript I am using JS to display a div which I have a few "save" and "cancel" buttons in. I want to have them all appear at once when clicked, but all I get when I click the "save" button is one, and when I click the "cancel" button is the other. My issue is that the css for the "save" button is just display:none; Code: var saveSave =
